Statistical data that reflect the socio-economic and demographic conditions of the residents of a country are useful for designing and preparation of development plans and for monitoring and evaluation of the impact of the implementation of the development plans. These statistical data include population size, age, sex, fertility, mortality, migration, literacy and education, marital status, occupation, industry, housing stocks and conditions, ...etc. In order to fill the gap for these Socio-economic and demographic data need, Ethiopia conducted its second National Population and Housing Census in October, 1994.

The 1994 Population and Housing Census of Ethiopia was conducted under the auspices of the Population and Housing Census Commission that was set up under Proclamation No. 32/1992. The Commission was chaired by the Prime Minister and the members of the commission were drawn from various relevant ministries. The Central Statistical Authority served as the Office of the Commission (Secretariat). Hence, the processing, evaluation and analyses of the data collected in this census as well as its dissemination are the responsibilities of this office. As stated above the census was conducted in October 1994 and the resulting data are processed and evaluated. Volume I of the census report presents the Statistical Reports for Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' Region which appear in five separate parts:

Volume I: Part I - Statistical Report on Population Size and Characteristics.

Volume I: Part II - Statistical Report on Education and Economic Activity.

Volume I: Part III- Statistical Report on Migration, Fertility and Mortality.

Volume I: Part IV - Statistical Report on Housing Characteristics.

Volume I: Part V - Abridged Statistical Report.

Thus, the Office of the Population and Housing Census Commission is pleased to present the census report "The 1994 Population and Housing Census of Ethiopia: Results for Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' Region, Volume I: Part I - Statistical Report on Population Size and Characteristics" for users. Another report which deals with the detailed analysis of the results of the 1994 Population and Housing Census data for the region will also be produced soon.

The 1994 Population and Housing Census was a huge nation wide operation which could not be undertaken by a single organization. Thus, full cooperation and assistance of government and non- government organizations, external donor agencies and the public in general was obtained. A number of preparatory activities were also carried-out before the census enumeration was begun. Among the major census preparatory activities was the conduct of the Population and Housing Census Map Work. In the census map work the peasant associations in rural areas and the urban dwellers associations in urban areas were sub-divided into enumeration areas with 150-200 housing units in urban areas and 150-200 households in rural areas. About 5-6 contiguous enumeration areas were formed into one supervision area. In this exercise enumeration area and supervision area maps were also prepared. In the census map work operation a total of 49,978 enumeration areas and 9,845 supervision areas were constructed in the settled rural areas and 8,724 enumeration areas and 1,575 supervision areas in the urban areas of the country. In rural areas of Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' Region a total of 10,564 enumeration areas and 1,990 supervision areas were delineated. On the other hand, in the urban areas of the region, a total of 855 enumeration areas and 126 supervision areas were formed.

During the census enumeration, one enumerator was given the map of one enumeration area and was responsible to record all persons and housing units in that enumeration area. One supervisor was later assigned to a supervision area and was responsible for the quality of the information collected in that area.

The Office of the Population and Housing Census Commission would like to thank all government and non-government agencies who participated in the organization of the census, the supervision of the field work, the data collection, and the respondents who participated in providing the necessary information. The government of Ethiopia has given huge financial and unreserved administrative support in undertaking the 1994 National Population and Housing Census from its inception till the dissemination of the results. This indicates the commitment and high priority offered by the government for socio-economic and demographic data collection, processing, evaluation and dissemination of the results to users.

The Office would also like to take this opportunity to express its many thanks to the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA) to its generous financial assistance and technical support in conducting the census. Moreover, thanks are due to United States Agency for International Development (USAID) for its financial and technical assistance for the census. Further thanks are due to the United Nations Development Program (UNDP) and to the Swedish International Development Authority (SIDA) for their financial assistance. The office hopes that the data presented in this report will be found useful by all data users.

CHAPTER I

INTRODUCTION

This chapter presents an overview of the content of the census report " The 1994 Population and Housing Census of Ethiopia: Results for Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' Region, Volume I: Part I- Statistical Report on Population Size and Characteristics". This report presents information on Population size of zones, weredas, towns, and kebeles. It also presents the sex, age, ethnic, language, religion, marital status, disability, ...etc. conditions of the population of the region. Projections of population sizes up to the year 2000 are also presented in this report. The data presented in this report constitute the major statistical tables that are essential to planners, administrators, researchers and other data users. The analytical report of the results of the census for Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' (SNNP) Region will be presented in a separate report, and will deal with indepth analyses of the results. Other reports that also present information for Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' Region are: Volume I: Part II- Statistical Report on Education and Economic Activity; Volume I: Part III- Statistical Report on Migration, Fertility and Mortality; Volume I: Part IV - Statistical Report on Housing Characteristics; and Volume I: Part V- Abridged Statistical Report.

Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' Region consists of nine zones and five Special Weredas. There are a total of 77 weredas and 149 towns in the region. The rural parts of the region had 3804 farmers' association areas at the time of the census. However, this number has recently declined drastically after the reorganization of the rural kebeles. The urban parts of the region have 213 kebeles in the 149 towns. The census fully covered all areas in the region except for 8 farmers' associations in the rural areas. The urban parts of the region were fully covered during the census. The 8 farmers' associations areas that were not covered in the census are found in Bench Maji Zone and Semen Omo Zone. Out of the 77 weredas in the region, 74 weredas were fully covered, while in three weredas a few FAs were not covered. These were five FAs in Surma Wereda, and two FAs in Sheko wereda of Bench Maji Zone; and parts of one FA in Boloso Sore Wereda of Semen Omo Zone. For details concerning the farmers' associations not covered in the census, reference may be made to Annex Table II.2 of this report.

The statistical tables presented in this report refer to the areas that were covered during the census, except in a few cases where it is explicitly stated that estimates for the areas not covered in the census are included. In this report, the population size of the areas covered in the census plus those that were not covered in the census is presented by zones and weredas in Table 2.1. The estimated population size of the areas not covered in the census by zones and weredas are presented in Table 2.2. The population size estimates for the farmers' associations not covered in the census are presented in Annex Table II.2. The population projection for the region is prepared using the total of the census covered plus the estimated population sizes. All the other tables refer to the census covered population only.

Localities were identified as urban or rural during the census cartographic work. Towns were defined as localities in which Urban Kebele Administration (previously known as Urban Dwellers Association) has been established. Localities that had 1000 or more persons whose inhabitants were primarily engaged in non agricultural activities were identified as towns irrespective of whether Urban Kebele Administration has been established or not. Similarly capitals of weredas were also identified as towns even if Urban Kebele Administration has not been established. However, changes of wereda boundaries have occurred since the conduct of the census cartographic work; and in some instances two or more previous weredas have been combined to form one wereda. Thus, localities that were seats of wereda administration at the time of the census cartographic work, and subsequently identified as towns in the census report, may no longer be wereda capitals.

The 1994 Population and Housing Census was the second national population and housing census ever to be conducted in the country. The first population and housing census was conducted in May 1984. The Second Population and Housing Census of Ethiopia was conducted beginning 11 October, 1994 and was completed in most areas within the following ten days. Eleventh of October, 1994 was used as the census day. The questionnaires used for the census were prepared in Amharic. English translations of the questionnaires used in the census are presented at the end of the report. The types of questionnaires used were:

i) Short Questionnaire (Appendix I)
ii) Long Urban Questionnaire (Appendix II)
iii) Long Rural Questionnaire (Appendix III)

The content of the short questionnaire was similar in urban and rural areas. The questionnaires were filled-in by enumerators who went from one household to the next. All members of the household were recorded on the same questionnaire. The short and the long questionnaires differed on the number of variables collected. The short questionnaire collected basic data on population such as population sizes, sex, age, language, ethnic group, religion, and marital status. In addition to these, the long questionnaire included data on disability, education, economic activity, migration, fertility, mortality, and housing stocks and conditions.

The type of questionnaire administered to each household was determined by using a systematic sampling selection procedure. During the three days before the census day all households, and housing units were listed in a separate form designed for the purpose. This list was used to identify the type of questionnaire that was to be administered to the households. One out of five households was selected to be interviewed using the long questionnaire, while the other four were interviewed using the short questionnaire. Residents of hotels, hostels and other collective quarters were always interviewed using the long questionnaire. Short questionnaire was also administered on the homeless persons.

Some of the information collected for the region which refer to population sizes, sex and age composition, language, ethnic, religion and marital distributions was collected from all persons covered in the census. However, some other information was collected from only a sample of the population. This refers to disability, education, economic activity, migration, fertility, mortality, and housing stocks and conditions. Eventhough the above information was collected from a sample of the population, statistical weights were applied to the information collected in order to let them represent the entire population. This means that the numbers presented in the tables that refer to disability, education, economic activity,... etc. represent the entire population of Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' Region and not only the sample population.

The fact that the information was collected from a sample of households and not from the entire households does not make the information less reliable. In fact this process increases the quality of the information collected by reducing the work load that would have been faced if all households were covered using the long questionnaires. The reduction of the work load improves the quality of the data because it is expected to facilitate a closer supervision during field work, enable better data coding and editing, and enable the timely processing of the data collected. The census was conducted by enumerators who went from house to house filling-in the questionnaires designed for the purpose. Homeless persons were enumerated in the place where they were spending the night.

This report contains two chapters. The first chapter serves as an introduction to the report. Chapter II presents the population sizes, sex, age, language, ethnic, religion, and marital status distributions of the population. It also provides the disability condition in the Region. Annex I presents population projection up to the year 2000, while Annex II presents the population size of kebeles (both urban kebeles and rural farmer's associations). Annex III presents the list of tables that appear on other parts of Volume I.

The accompanying Volume I: Part II consists of Chapter III which presents the Educational Characteristics of the Population and Chapter IV which deals with the Economic Characteristics of the population in the region. Volume I: Part III presents Chapter V which deals with Migration, Fertility and Mortality conditions. Volume I: Part IV presents Chapter VI which deals with the Housing Characteristics. Volume I: Part V has six chapters and presents selected tables from Volume I: Parts I, II, III and IV; and thus deals in an abridged form on population size and characteristics, educational characteristics, economic characteristics, migration, fertility, mortality and housing characteristics. The abridged form was found necessary as the size of the region is huge and hence data tabulated is enormous, which required binding in five separate parts.

Because of the use of sampling in the collection of some of the information in the census, slight discrepancies between the various tables may be observed. Tables that deal with population size, sex, age, language, ethnic group, religion and marital status refer to the entire population. Tables that deal with disability, education, economic activity, migration, fertility, and mortality exclude the homeless. Since the homeless population is very small compared to the population of the region, the discrepancies are very small. Homeless persons were enumerated using only the short questionnaire because the enumeration took place at night at the place where they were sleeping, and it was not convenient to apply long questionnaires in these situations. Homeless persons were not included in the application of the statistical weights.

The tables presented here were selected from a long list of tables that have already been produced for Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' Region. The forthcoming analytical report for the 1994 Population and Housing Census data of Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' Region will also present some of these tables. The analytical report will concentrate more on providing indepth analysis rather than providing detailed tabulations. Analysis of the results of the census data are expected to continue even after the production of the analytical report.

CHAPTER II

POPULATION SIZE AND CHARACTERISTICS

This chapter presents data on population size for Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' Region at zone, and wereda, levels classified into rural and urban areas, and at town levels. Also presented are population sizes by age, sex, type of residence, household size, ethnic group, language, religion, relationship to head of the household, marital status and disability. The chapter consists of various tables which are self-explanatory. However, short definitions of some important terms and concepts used in the chapter are provided.

The 1994 Census did not cover some areas in Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' Region. Areas that were not covered during the census were parts of Semen Omo zone and Bench Maji zone. Estimates of population size of these areas are given separately in Tables 2.2 and Annex Table II.2 of this chapter. Except for Tables 2.1 and 2.2, all other tables in this chapter refer to the population covered in the census.

The total population of Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' Region was found to be 10,377,028 of which 5,161,787 were males and 5,215,241 were females. This figure includes both the areas covered during the census and the areas not covered in the census. The population in areas not covered during the census constitute 5,836 persons, of which 3,772 are males and 2,064 are females. All of the areas not covered during the census are found in rural areas.

The estimated population refers to rural parts of Boloso Sore Wereda in Semen Omo Zone and parts of Surma and Sheko Weredas in Bench Maji Zone. Estimates were done on EA (Enumeration Area) basis from the population figures obtained in the household listing carried out during census cartographic work, which was conducted 1-2 years prior to the undertaking of the 1994 census. The estimation (projection) was made using an assumed growth rate. In some weredas, for farmers' associations where census cartographic work had not been conducted, estimates were obtained by using the average population size of farmers' associations for which estimates were available.

The first table of this chapter (Table 2.1) presents the sum of counted population size and estimates of areas not covered in the census for Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' Region. Table 2.2 provides the estimated population sizes of the areas not covered during the 1994 census by zone and wereda. Table 2.3 and subsequent tables refer to counted population only. The total (counted) population of Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' region is presented in Table 2.3. Table 2.4 provides the population size of towns covered in the census. According to the 1994 Census, the population size of areas covered during the census was found to be 10,371,192; of which 5,158,015 were males and 5,213,177 were females. The population sizes refer to the de jure population size of Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' Region as of 11 October, 1994. De jure population comprises of all the people who "belong" to a given area at a given time by virtue of usual residence (Shryock et al., 1973). In the census a person is said to be a usual resident of a household (and hence an area) if he/she has been residing in the area continuously for at least six months before the census day or intends to reside in the area for six months or longer. Thus, visitors are not included with the usual population. Homeless persons were enumerated in the place where they were spending the night. The 1994 Census includes foreign nationals who were residing in the region. On the other hand all Ethiopians living abroad were not counted.

Tables 2.5A - 2.5C classify population size by broad age group and type of residence, and Table 2.6 shows population size of zones by sex and type of residence. Type of residence is categorized into two major groups, namely, conventional and non-conventional. Respondents who live in the same housing unit and have common cooking arrangements (eat their food together) are said to be residing in conventional households. The non-conventional population in turn is sub-divided into residents of collective quarters (hotel/hostel and other collective quarters) and the homeless. A collective quarter is a housing unit, a building, or a compound in which a number of unrelated persons reside together and share common facilities e.g. boarding schools, prisons, hotels, hostels,... etc. Homeless persons refer to individuals without any fixed residence.

The distribution of the number of members per household for the population living in conventional households of zones is given in Table 2.7 A household often consists of the head, the spouse, their children and some other persons residing in the household. A person is considered to be a member of a household if he has the same cooking arrangement with the other members.

The population size of Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' Region by single years of age and sex is presented in Table 2.8, while Table 2.9 and 2.10, provide the five year age group and sex distribution of the population for weredas, and towns, respectively. During the census, age of respondents was registered in completed years. Enumerators used several probing questions to get exact ages from respondents who did not know their exact ages.

Ethnic identity of a person is traced through his/her national or tribal origin. To assist the enumerators in recording the information, detailed list of the ethnic groups in the country, obtained from The Institute of Nationalities Study, was provided in the census enumerators' manual. In this report ethnic groups are listed down in alphabetical order, except where indentation is used to present related ethnic groups next to one another. For example Kembata, Alaba, Kebena and Timbaro are related ethnic groups. For this reason all these ethnic groups are presented next to one another. To indicate that these are related ethnic groups, the names Alaba, Kebena and Timbaro appear indented in the list below the name Kembata. The selection regarding which ethnic group will appear indented in the table does not imply that one ethnic group is dominant over the others. All the ethnic groups are treated independently and separate figures are presented for each.

The size of each ethnic group residing in Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' Region and its zones is presented in detail in Table 2.11. The ethnic group distribution of weredas and towns are provided in Table 2.12 and 2.13, respectively. However in Tables 2.12 and 2.13 only the five major ethnic groups and ethnic groups that have population size of 500 persons or above within a wereda/town are presented separately, while the rest are grouped together and presented as "others". This was done to keep the table to a manageable size.

In the 1994 Census mother tongue is defined as the language used by the child for communication with his family members or guardians during childhood. Whereas second language is additional language used by the respondent. If the respondent uses more than one additional language, the one that is used more frequently is recorded. Similar to the previous table, indentation is used to present related language groups one after another. Table 2.14 presents the detail distribution of all mother tongues spoken in the region. In Tables 2.15 and 2.16, however, only the largest five mother tongues spoken and mother tongues spoken by 500 or more persons in weredas and towns, respectively, are presented. The remaining mother tongues spoken are grouped together and labeled as 'others'. Table 2.17 provides all the second languages spoken in Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' Region.

Religion is presented under four major groups; namely, Christian, Muslim, Others and Traditional. Christian is further sub divided into Orthodox, Protestant and Catholic. Orthodox Christianity includes the Kibat and Tsega while Seven Day Adventist, Pentecost, Lutheran, Baptist, Anglican, Presbyterian, Meserete Kirstos, Mulu Wengel, Kale Hiywot,...etc. are presented as Protestants. Hindus, Jews, Behais, Johovas, Atheists,... etc. fall under the "others" category. Tables 2.18A - 2.18C present the religious distribution of the population by age group, while Table 2.19 and 2.20 show religious groups and their respective size of population for weredas and towns, respectively.

The 1994 census has also collected information on members of the household and their relationship to the head. The head of the household is any member of the household who is recognized as a head by the members. In a polygamous marriage where the wives have separate households, the husband is considered to be the head of the household of the first wife. The other wives or other members (eg. elder son) is considered to be the head of their respective households. The data on relationship to the heads of conventional households is presented in Tables 2.21A - 2.21C.

Marital status of the population aged ten years and over by age group and sex is presented in Table 2.22A - 2.22C. Marital status is presented in four major groups; namely, single, married, divorced, and widowed. A person who had never been married is considered to be single; married persons include couples who are living together bonded by any kind of marital engagement at the time of the census (Traditional, Church, or Municipality); separated couples are also considered to be married unless they had dissolved their marriage agreement. Any body who had been married but whose marriage was dissolved before the census day is categorized as divorced. A person who has not married again after the death of a spouse is categorized as widowed.

Table 2.23 presents disability status and type of disability by broad age groups and sex for the region. Table 2.24 provides disability status and type of disability by sex for each zone. Note that figures in these tables exclude the homeless. In the census a disabled person was defined as one who, due to physical or mental injuries, could not fully perform activities that other healthy persons could do. This represents decrease or loss of ability to discharge various social or economic functions. Disability is presented under ten major groups, namely; i) totally blind ii) partially blind (one whose eyes could only see partially or one who is blind on one eye); iii) hearing problems (totally deaf or partially deaf); iv) hearing and speaking problems; v) leg problems (lame, amputated or crippled); vi) hand/arm problems; vii) leprosy; viii) mental problems (epilepsy, madness, mental retardation, melancholia...etc); ix) other types of disability (different from what is specified above); and x) multiple disability (with two or more physical defects mentioned above).

At the end of this chapter, projected population size for Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' Region is presented in Annex I. In addition, the population size of urban kebeles and farmers' association are given in Annex II.

ANNEX I

POPULATION PROJECTION

Population projection gives information on the size, structure and characteristics of the population in the future. The resulting projected population figures can be used for drawing development plans and for policy making. This annex provides the projected population size of Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' Region by rural-urban, sex, and five years age group for period from 1995-2000.

Methodology:

There are two main categories of methods for population projection: (a) procedures for projecting the population considering mortality, fertility and migration by age and sex (cohort component method); and (b) procedures for projecting the population using mathematical functions. The former technique is usually applicable to a longer time period projection under different variants, i.e., low, medium and high variants. In this report, a simple mathematical function (exponential) is used to project the population up to the year 2000.

The 1994 Population and Housing Census has not covered some areas in Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' Region. The total counted population size of urban and rural areas of Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' Region under the 1994 census were 704,818 and 9,666,374 respectively. The not-counted population size of rural areas were estimated to be 3,772 males and 2,064 females. The not-counted population size of rural areas of the region were distributed among the age groups, in proportion to the reported age distribution of the counted rural population obtained during the 1994 census. The counted population of urban areas and the sum of the counted and not-counted population size of rural areas of the region were used as the base population for the projection.

The population projection is made separately for rural and urban areas by applying the national estimated annual average growth rates for rural and urban areas (2.23 percent for rural and 4.11 percent for urban areas). The projected population size of rural and urban areas were made using an exponent method of projection. The projected population size of rural and urban areas were split into males and females by applying and keeping constant the sex ratios of rural and urban population of Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' Region obtained in the 1994 census. Then, the projected population of urban and rural areas by sex were added up to give the total projected population size of Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' Region.

Assessment of age structure of the population:

Information on age of the population collected in the census is often subjected to age mis-reporting. This is because some people, do not know their true age and others do not report their age accurately. The indices and graphs of the age structure of the population have indicated that, there is some distortion of the reported age pattern of the population. This distortion on the reported age pattern of the population may be attributed to age misreporting and migration. Despite some distortion on the age pattern, the reported age structure of the rural-urban population of Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' Region obtained from the 1994 census were used as a base year population. The age structure of the base year population for urban and rural areas of the Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' Region are given in Annex Table I.1.

Assumptions:

The projection presented in this chapter is made under the assumption that the annual average population growth rates of rural and urban areas for the nation observed between 1984-1994 which are 2.23 percent and 4.11 percent respectively will remain constant during the projection period. Then, these observed growth rates are applied for projecting the rural and urban population of Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' Region for each year between 1995-2000. The reported age distribution obtained in rural and urban areas during 1994 are assumed to remain constant up to the year 2000. The assumption that age distribution will remain constant may not hold because changes in fertility and mortality will have an effect on age distribution. This assumptions may be revised when detailed population projections are made in the forthcoming census analytical report of the region.

Projection Results:

Based on the above assumptions, the projected population results of Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples' Region and rural-urban breakdowns by sex, five years age group up to the year 2000 is given in Annex Table I.2. Figures in the tables refer to mid-year population i.e., July first of the indicated years.

This projection is made for a limited number of years and under very broad assumptions. This was made to provide figures that will be useful for institutions or individuals who would like to use the projected figures, till detailed projections under various assumptions and for longer periods can be made. These detailed projections will be presented in the census analytical report of the region that will be forthcoming.
